

Press Release

30.10.2025

New beginnings

Paulina Caspari is Relocating

After three wonderful years in our cherished gallery space at Augustenstraße 33a in Munich, Paulina Caspari is relocating, just three minutes around the corner to Gabelsbergerstraße 83.

We extend our deepest gratitude to the artists, curators, collectors, collaborators, and friends who have shaped and supported our program with such generosity and dedication. Your continued engagement and commitment to fostering a thoughtful contemporary discourse have been—and will remain—at the heart of our journey together. We would also like to express our sincere thanks to our esteemed colleague Nir Altman for entrusting us with his former gallery premises.

As we prepare to move into our new home at Gabelsbergerstraße 83, we wish to honor the remarkable community that has made these past three years so meaningful.

Exhibited artists 2022 – 2025: Carolina Aguirre, Hêlîn Alas, Adam Alessi, Lorenzo Amos, Angela Bidak, Krystel Cárdenas, Chiki, Antonia Brown, Jeanne Gaigher, Benji Grignon, Sylvie Hayes-Wallace, Melle van Herwaarden, Kelsey Isaacs, Nour Jaouda, Sara Knowland, Jens Kothe, Sarah Księska, Nika Kutateladze, Yein Lee, Hojeong Lee, Tomas Leth, Molly Rose Lieberman, Angela Maasalu, Calvin Marcus, Josip Novosel, Berenice Olmedo, Oliver Osborne, Evelyn Plaschg, Jessy Razafimandimby, Hanna Rochereau, Elias Saile, Vincent Scheers, Emma Rose Schwartz, Nils-Alix Tabeling, Vasyl Tkachenko, Pei-Yi Tsai, Aleksandra Waliszewska.

We are delighted to welcome you to our new address on November 20, 2025, for the opening of an exhibition by Elias Saile. This inaugural presentation at Gabelsbergerstraße 83 marks the German artist's first solo exhibition with the gallery.

The gallery will continue with a rigorous international program at its new location, initiating new exhibitions with established as well as young artists. Forseen in the upcoming program are solo presentations with Hanna Rochereau, Thomas Rentmeister, Caroline Douville, and Oliver Osborne among others. Shortly forthcoming is a group presentation at Cape Town Art Fair in South Africa, where Paulina Caspari continues to deepen a close exchange .